From Tuesday October 11. to Saturday October 15 1737.

Dublin, October 6.

ON Tuesday the 4th Instant, the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, His Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, His Grace sent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houses, who unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to His Majesty; which were this Day presented to His Grace.

His Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, His Speech to both Houses of Parliament, at Dublin, on Tuesday the Fourth Day of October, 1737.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

NOthing could be more agreeable to me, than to receive his Majesty's Commands to meet you in Parliament. The Firmness and Zeal which you have shewn for the Support of the Protestant Religion, and your sincere and constant Attachment to his Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, give me the Prospect of an easy Administration: And as his Majesty's Service and the Prosperity of this Kingdom are the only Points I have in View, I am fully perswaded, that this Session cannot fail of proving to the Advantage of the Publick.

I observe, with great Pleasure, how much the Exportations of your Linnen Manufactures have increased of late Years; and assure you, that Nothing shall be wanting on my Part, which may contribute to the improving and extending that valuable Branch of your Trade.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the several Accounts and Estimates, to be laid before you; and have nothing in Command from his Majesty to ask, but the usual and necessary Supplies for the Support of the Establishment.

If any further Law could be framed, to put an effectual Stop to that pernicious Practice of Running of Goods, the beneficial Consequences of it would be found in raising the publick Revenues, in lessening the National Debt, and in giving Encouragement to the fair and honest Trader.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is the peculiar Distinction of his Majesty's Subjects, that they have frequent Opportunities of preparing and offering such Laws as they think for the general Good of their Country. This Privilege can never be of greater Advantage than at this Time, when we have a Prince upon the Throne, who considers the Interest of his Subjects as inseparable from his own, and is always ready to give his Royal Assent to every Act that may promote the Happiness of his People.

His Majesty, by chooſing a Princess of the most eminent Virtues and Accomplishments, and of an House, foremost in the Protestant Cause, to be Consort to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, hath given a Proof of his Royal and paternal Care to continue the Blessings of his Reign to our latest Posterity; and the Earnest, which we have already received from Providence, by the Birth of a Princess, opens to us a new Prospect of a lasting Succession in his Majesty's most illustrious Family.

You may depend upon my most hearty Inclinations and best Assistance to serve you in every Thing that may contribute to the Security and Welfare of Ireland: And, from the full Enjoyment you have had of your Religious and Civil Rights under his Majesty's mild and most gracious Government, I have no Room to doubt, but you will proceed, in all your Deliberations, with such Temper and Unanimity as may be expected from a People who have at all Times shewn themselves most affectionate and loyal Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for the tender Regard you have always ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of this your Kingdom; and for your Majeſty's Royal Protection of us, in the full Enjoyment of all our Religious and Civil Rights under your mild and moſt gracious Government.

We take this firſt Opportunity, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal and Paternal Care, in the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with a Princeſs of the moſt conſummate Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha, which ſo early diſtinguiſh'd itſelf in the Proteſtant Cauſe: And by the Birth of a Princeſs, with which Providence hath already bleſſed us, we have the pleaſing Proſpect enlarged of our lateſt Poſterity being governed by a Prince of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We beg Leave to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family; and that we will uſe our utmoſt Care and Diligence, in preparing ſuch Laws as may moſt effectually tend to the Support of your Majeſty's Government, the improving of our Linnen Manufacture, and preventing that moſt pernicious Practice of Running of Goods, ſo highly prejudicial to the publick Revenue, and ſo diſcouraging and detrimental to the fair Trader.

We are moſt truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's readineſs to concur in whatever may promote the Good of your People; and your Majeſty may depend upon our proceeding in all our Deliberations with the utmoſt Temper and Unanimity, as the beſt Means to render our Conſultations ſucceſsful.

We cannot but moſt thankfully acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs and tender Concern for us, in appointing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, whoſe Anceſtors have always ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty, and more particularly, at the late happy Revolution under our great Deliverer King William, of ever glorious Memory: And from his Grace's known Character and eminent Virtues, we promiſe ourſelves, under his Adminiſtration, every Advantage which can be wiſhed for or deſired by a moſt loyal and dutiful People.

Em. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and affectionate Addreſs to his Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave in the moſt humble Manner, to aſſure your Majeſty, that your moſt faithful Commons continue in the ſame Firmneſs and Zeal they have always ſhewn for the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and in the ſame ſincere and conſtant Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We have the juſteſt Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and will with the greateſt Chearfulneſs grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for the Support of your Majeſty's Government with Honour.

We muſt always gratefully acknowledge the Aſſurances given from the Throne, that nothing ſhall be wanting which may contribute to the improving and extending the Linnen Manufactures, ſo valuable a Branch of the Trade of this Kingdom.

The pernicious Conſequences attending the fraudulent Importation and Running of Goods, will engage us to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to frame ſuch Laws as may put an effectual Stop to Practices ſo prejudicial to the fair Trader and your Majeſty's Revenue.

As the Security of our Religion and Liberties depends on the Proteſtant Succeſſion, we think ourſelves obliged to return our humble Thanks to your Majeſty, in the moſt particular Manner, for chooſing a Princeſs of the moſt eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of an Houſe, foremoſt in the Proteſtant Cauſe, to be Conſort to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, whom Providence hath bleſſed by the Birth of a Princeſs, which gives us the pleaſing Proſpect of a laſting Succeſſion in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We have a further Inſtance of your Majeſty's tender Care of the Proſperity of your People, in the wiſe Appointment of a Perſon of his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire's eminent and great Abilities to be Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, who hath already laid an high Obligation on this Nation, to endeavour to make his Adminiſtration eaſy, by his having followed the great Example of his moſt noble Anceſtors, in the ſteady Defence of the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſts, and his firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

In all our Deliberations, we ſhall have in View your Majeſty's Service, which we look upon as inſeparable from our own Intereſts, and we ſhall proceed with ſuch Temper and Unanimity, as may become, and may juſtly be expected from a People, who have at all all Times ſhewn themſelves moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Iſaac Ambroſe, and Burdet Worthington, } Cler' Parl' Dom' Com'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I ſhall take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before his Majeſty.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland.

The Humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

It is with the moſt entire Satisfaction to ourſelves, and the greateſt Thankfulneſs to his Majeſty, that we ſee the Government of this Kingdom committed to the Care of your Grace, whoſe illuſtrious Anceſtors had ſo great a Share in that happy Revolution, to which we owe our preſent Eſtabliſhment; and who by your Wiſdom, Integrity, and Goodneſs, as well as firm and zealous Adherence to the Proteſtant Religion, together with your Affection to his Majeſty, and his Royal Family, have gained univerſal Eſteem.

As the Proteſtants of Ireland have from the Revolution, under King William of Glorious and Immortal Memory, to this Day, given manifeſt Proofs of a ſteady Attachment to their Civil and Religious Rights; his Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall continue to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, to deliver down to our Poſterity, thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, of which He (under God) is the ſupreme Guardian: And as your Grace has no other Points in View, but his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom; we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that nothing ſhall, on our Part, be wanting, to make the Adminiſtration of the Government eaſy to your Grace, and of Advantage to the Publick.

It is a great Pleaſure to us, as well as to your Grace, to obſerve how much the Exportations of our Linnen Manufactures have increaſed of late Years; and we rely upon your Grace's Countenance and Goodneſs, in contributing to the improving and extending that Branch of our Trade, which we are ſenſible is the moſt valuable of any to our Country.

We, amongſt the reſt of his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, have a true and moſt grateful Senſe of our Happineſs, in living under the Government of a Prince, who, by his Readineſs to give his Royal Aſſent to every Act, that may promote the Happineſs of his People, ſecures to us the full Benefit of thoſe frequent Opportunities we have, of preparing and offering ſuch Laws, as we think for the general Good of our Country.

Our Hearts are filled with the moſt ſincere Gratitude, and the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Affection, when we reflect on his Majeſty's Royal and Paternal Care for the future Good of his People, by chooſing a Princeſs of the moſt eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments, to be Conſort to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and one who is deſcended from a Houſe remarkably diſtinguiſhed in the Proteſtant Cauſe; and it gives us the higheſt Joy, that Providence has, by the Birth of a Princeſs, opened to us a new and pleaſing Proſpect of the Continuance of the Bleſſings of his Majeſty's Reign to our lateſt Poſterity, by a laſting Succeſſion in his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We can never too thankfully acknowledge the Aſſurances your Grace is pleaſed to give us, of your moſt hearty Inclinations and beſt Aſſiſtance to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom, under his Majeſty's mild and moſt gracious Government: And in Return for ſo great Goodneſs, we ſhall think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged to carry on all our Proceedings with ſuch Temper and Unanimity, as may give the greateſt Eaſe to your Grace's Adminiſtration, and at the ſame Time ſhew that we are moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

En. Sterne, Cler' Parliamentor'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Return my Thanks to your Lordſhips for this very obliging Addreſs, which is moſt agreeable to me, ſince nothing leſs than your good Opinion of my Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom, could give me any Title to ſuch a Mark of your Eſteem.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return your Grace our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

The Pleaſure which the Increaſe of our Exportations of the Linnen Manufactures gives gives your Grace, and the great Desire you express of having an effectual Stop put to that most pernicious Practice of Running of Goods, are pregnant Instances how much the Interest, Welfare, and Trade of this Kingdom are your Concern.

Under a Chief Governour who gives such early Proofs of his Care for our Prosperity, whose great Abilities, Candour and Generosity, add a Lustre to his high Rank, and whose Zeal for the present Establishment hath long since rendred him most conspicuous, we have no Room to doubt, but that his Majesty's Service, and the Happiness of his People, will be always his chief Care.

The glorious Share your noble Ancestors had in the late happy Revolution, and your Grace's steady Adherence to the same Principles, give us the strongest Reason to hope, that where the Love of Liberty is so firmly seated in the Heart, all its attendant Blessings must be continued to us.

We beg Leave to assure your Grace, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part that may contribute to the Ease and Honour of an Administration, which we are fully convinced will be most prudent and happy.

Isaac Ambrose, and Burdett Worthington, } Cler' Parl' Dom' Com'

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Thank you for this very kind Address; and shall upon all Occasions endeavour to convince you, that my Inclination to promote the Interest of this Kingdom, is not inferior to the Zeal you express for his Majesty's Person and Government.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION

For suppressing Riots and Tumults committed by Tinners, and others, within the County of Cornwall, and for apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons, who, in September last, were concerned in breaking open the Warehouses of Claudius Guide at Penryn, and taking away the Corn thereout.

GEORGE R.

WHereas it has been represented unto Us, That a great Number of Tinners and others assembled themselves together, and in a riotous, tumultuous, and insolent Manner, upon the Nineteenth Day of September last, went through the Town of Penryn in the County of Cornwall, to the Town Key there, and under Pretence of preventing the Exportation of Corn, by Force and Violence broke open one of the Warehouses of Mr. Claudius Guide, a Merchant, and by Threats compelled the said Claudius Guide to deliver them the Key of another Warehouse there, and in an insolent outrageous Manner took thereout, and carried away, a considerable Quantity of Corn, and also abused, beat, and wounded several Persons who came to his Assistance; and that since the said Outrage and Riot committed, divers Tinners and others have risen and assembled in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, in order to prevent, as they pretend, the Exportation of Corn, and for other wicked and insolent Purposes, in open Defiance of Justice, and the Laws; by which the Peace of the said County, and the Lives and Properties of our good Subjects are greatly endangered: We therefore being deeply sensible of the many mischievous Consequences that must inevitably ensue to the Peace of our Kingdom, and the Lives and Properties of our loving Subjects, from such wicked and insolent Practices, if they shall go unpunished; and being firmly resolved to cause the Laws of this our Kingdom to be put in Execution, for the Punishment of all such Offenders, have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly commanding and requiring all our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and all other our Civil Officers whatsoever, that they do use their utmost Endeavours for discovering and apprehending the following Persons, who, we are informed, were concerned in the said Outrage and Riot committed at Penryn aforesaid; that is to say, Francis Rogers, of the Parish of Perran Arwothal, in the said County of Cornwall, Tinner, George Thomas, commonly called The Glover, of the Parish of Gwenop, in the same County, George Pearce of the Parish of Kea in the same County, Tinner. James Ostler of the same Place, Tinner, John Epargoe, otherwise Spargo, now or late of Stithyans in the same County, Tinner, and also all other Persons who have been concerned in the said Crime, and who shall be concerned in any of the said riotous and dangerous Practices, to the End they may be brought to Justice. And we do hereby promise and declare, That if any Person or Persons concerned in the said Outrage and Felony at Penryn aforesaid, or in any of the said Crimes, shall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December next, discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any other Person or Persons, who hath or have, or shall have been concerned in any of the said Offences, that have, or shall have been committed, on or since the said Nineteenth of September last, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, such Discoverer or Discoverers thereof shall have our most gracious Pardon. And as a further Encouragement to such as shall discover the said Offenders, We do hereby further promiſe and declare, That any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall, on or before the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of December next, diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any of the Perſons abovenamed, or any other Perſon or Perſons concerned in the breaking open, or compelling the ſaid Mr. Guide to open, his ſaid Warehouſe, or in the taking away the Corn of the ſaid Mr. Guide, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall have and receive for every Perſon ſo diſcovered, apprehended, and convicted, the Sum of Fifty Pounds; which ſaid Sum the Commiſſioners of our Treaſury, or our Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, are hereby directed and required to pay accordingly, without any further Warrant in that Behalf. And we do hereby further ſtrictly charge and command all our Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and other Officers aforeſaid, That they do uſe the moſt effectual Means for ſuppreſſing all Riots and Tumults, and to that End effectually put in Execution an Act of Parliament made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of our late Royal Father of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for preventing Tumults and riotous Aſſemblies, and for the more ſpeedy and effectual puniſhing the Rioters, and all other Laws and Statutes made againſt Riots, Routs, and unlawful Aſſemblies; and that the ſaid Juſtices, and all other our Civil Officers, to whom it doth appertain, do give the neceſſary Directions, that ſufficient Watch and Ward be duly kept at ſuch Times and Places, as they ſhall judge neceſſary for the preventing and ſuppreſſing the like Diſorders. And we do hereby further ſtrictly charge and command all our Officers Civil and Military, and all other our loving Subjects, That they be aiding and aſſiſting in the Execution of our Commands herein, and in the apprehending and taking the Perſons above named, and all other Perſons who have offended, or ſhall hereafter offend in Manner aforeſaid. And we do hereby charge and command, That the ſaid Offenders be proſecuted with the utmoſt Severity and Rigour of Law, We being reſolved to ſuppreſs ſuch Riots and Tumults by a moſt ſtrict and exemplary Puniſhment of all ſuch Offenders. And we do hereby command the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, and other Magiſtrates aforeſaid, That they do, from time to time, tranſmit an exact Account of what they ſhall do, purſuant to this our Royal Proclamation, to one of our Principal Secretaries of State.

Given at our Palace at Hampton Court the Sixth Day of October, 1737. in the Eleventh Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the King.

Vienna, Oct. 5, N. S. There are no Letters come from Count Seckendorff ſince thoſe of the 25th paſt, which gives Cauſe to fear his being fallen ſick. An Expreſs arrived late laſt Night from the Banat of Temeſwaer to Count Hamilton, who is Governour of that Province, with an Account of an Action between Count Kevenhuller's ſeparate Body of Troops upon the River Timock, and a Party of 4 or 5000 Turks, wherein the Imperialiſts had a great Advantage; but that another Party of Turks from the Danube had fallen upon the Equipages of Count Kevenhuller's Troops, and had carried off great Part of them. Theſe Letters are of the 30th paſt, N. S. General Wallis, who had the Command of the Imperial Troops in Walachia, is dead of a Fever, and General Furſtenbuſch has for the preſent taken on him that Command. Prince Hildburghauſen having fallen very ill upon the Road from Brod to Sabatz, has quitted the Detachment he commanded.

Hague, Oct. 22, N. S. According to the Accounts from Vienna, the Imperial Troops have taken Uſitza by Capitulation, after a Siege of eight Days, in which General Diemar was killed; as were alſo ſeveral other Officers of Note. The Turks having paſſed the Danube near Widdin, in Number about 15000, attacked the Body of Troops commanded by General Kevenhuller, being only 4500 Men, forced them to retire, and were ſtill, when the Letters came, following them in their Retreat, their Baggage being already taken. Theſe Advices come from the Saxon Troops, who were in the Action: Other Advices from Vienna give the Advantage to the Imperialiſts, aſſuring us the Turks were obliged to retire with the Loſs of 1500 Men.

Hampton-Court, October 11.

This Day the Abbe Pareti, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Modena, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State; and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrel, Knight, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

The ſame Day his Excellency Hadgee Abdelkadir Perez, Admiral and Ambaſſadour from the Emperour of Morocco, had his firſt Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

And afterwards an Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, Mary and Louiſa; to which he was introduced by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.
